§ 1309. Miscellaneous provisions

(a) Principal office; territorial scope of activities

The principal office of the corporation shall be located in New York, New York, or in such other place as may be later determined by the board of governors, but the activities of the corporation shall not be confined to that place. The said activities may be conducted throughout the various States, territories, and possessions of the United States, and in foreign countries.

(b) Agent for service of process

The corporation shall maintain at all times in the District of Columbia a designated agent authorized to accept service of process for the corporation. Service upon, or notice mailed to the business address of, such agent, shall be deemed notice to or service upon the corporation.

(c) Local agents for service of process

The corporation shall file in the office of the secretary of each State, territory, or possession of the United States in which the corporation or its local, State, or regional councils, organizations, chapters, or affiliates may have activities, the name and post office address of an authorized agent upon whom local process or demands against the corporation may be served.

(d) Books and records; inspection

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, and of its board of governors, or any committee having any of the authority of the board of governors; and shall keep at its principal office a record giving the names and addresses of its members entitled to vote; and shall permit all books and records of the corporation to be inspected by any member or his agent or his attorney for any purpose at any reasonable time.

(e) Annual report

The corporation shall make public an annual report concerning its proceedings and activities for the preceding calendar year.

(f) Audit of financial transactions

The provisions of sections 1102 and 1103 of this title shall apply with respect to the corporation.

(g) Omitted

(h) Reservation of right to amend or repeal chapter

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this chapter is hereby expressly reserved to the Congress.
